

Dear Parents and Caregivers,

Mr. Yuk, the Washington Poison Center, and Seattle Children's Hospital invite students grades Kindergarten through 6th to participate in our 16th annual Poison Prevention Poster Contest. This year's theme is "Mr. Yuk Helps Everyone!"

The annual Poison Prevention Poster Contest asks Washington kids to consider how Mr. Yuk helps keep people safe from harmful substances. The winning artwork will be transformed into a poster that the Washington Poison Center distributes statewide for National Poison Prevention Week (March 20-26, 2022).

Contest Schedule

- Last day to submit: Friday, February 11, 2022
- Winner announced: Tuesday, March 1, 2022

The Winner will receive:

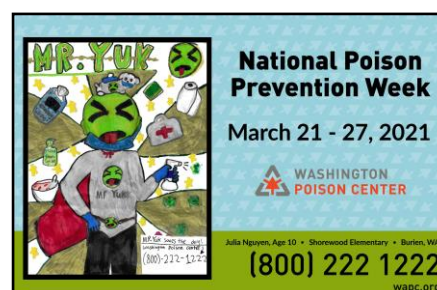

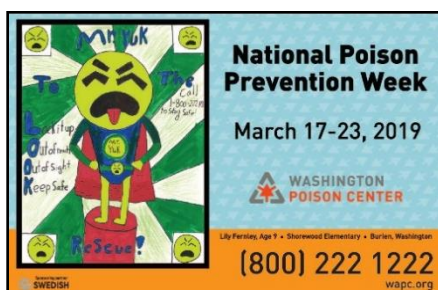

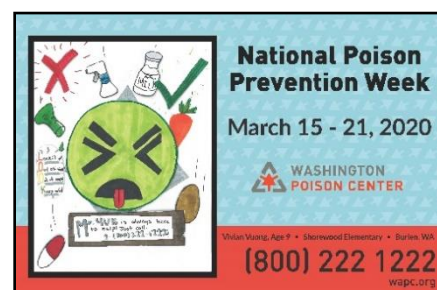

- A Kindle
- A party for their classroom, with a special visit from the one and only Mr. Yuk
- A visit with the winner's local state representatives
- Artwork included in a poster and media packages for organizations across Washington state

Poster Contest Materials & Resources

Visit <https://www.wapc.org/programs/education/annual-poster-contest-rules/> for:

- Contest rules and information
- Poison safety resources and information
- Fun, interactive activities on Mr. Yuk and poison safety

For questions or more information, contact: mryuk@wapc.org

The Washington Poison Center is always here to help, 24/7/365 by calling: 1 (800) 222-1222.
All calls are free and confidential.